this response to the above stated filings. Grounds for this Motion are as follows:

1. On June 21, 2002, Defendants filed a suggestion of mootness in the instant case.
2. On July 15, 2002, Plaintiff files his response specifying that the instant case is not moot, as he will be forced to be housed temporarily at the Broward County Jail.

4. In Defendant's said reply, Defendants claim that all issue raised showing that the Plaintiff is going to be housed at the Broward County Mail Jail are speculative.
5. Since the Defendants refuse to believe the Plaintiff's claims that he will be housed in the future at the Broward County Main Jail, the Plaintiff submits the following as actual physical proof of the Plaintiff being housed in the Broward County Main Jail subject once again to his rights being violated;
6. On the 30th day of July 2002, the HONORABLE WILLIAM W. HENNING put forth an order transporting the Plaintiff for trial. Thus showing actual physical proof of the Plaintiff being forced to be housed once again in the Broward County Main Jail subject to his rights being violated further (See attached Order of JUDGE HERRING.)
7. The Plaintiff's other claims of being held at the Broward County Main Jail in the future are going to be coming into ripeness showing actual physical proof of the Plaintiff's asserted claims.

Wherefore in the absence of any corruption on behalf of the Defendants, or further conspiracy of attempts to have this case forgotten about, the Plaintiff humbly requests this Honorable Court to deny the Defendant's suggestion of mootness.
